Week of 04-13 / 04-17

What we will be doing this week ????????

Reading: The students will review the vocabulary words learned throughout the year. I will use different strategies to reach their needs, such as: projects and games based learning. This week I will try to reinforce reading skills as we will be reading the story posted in IAC. I urge all the parents to encourage their kids to read out loud by their own.

Writing: Students will practice writing Arabic words using their notebooks & their small boards.

Dialogue: I will pair up the students to perform a dialogue using interrogative pronouns.

Listening: Students will continue watching, reading, and understanding the story: (يحيا العدل).

No HW

Reading assessment
